

Seminar throws light on spirituality and business

● FPJ BUSINESS DESK
Mumbai

H.H. Radhanath Swami, renowned spiritual leader and author of international best-seller "Journey Home" explained the concept of 'Visionary Leadership with Vedic Principles' at a seminar titled "Artha" for corporates on December 8 and 9.

The seminar started with a welcome note by Rajesh

Talwar - Managing Director of Basil Partners and invocation by His Grace Gaur Gopal Prabhuji. CEO's and top executives of various companies were present at the seminar.

Hrishikesh Mafatlal of Mafatlal Industries said, "Understanding of relationship can come with spirituality and spirituality means believing in superior power. There is no room for discrimination if one believes in spirituality."

In his message to the corporate world, His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj said that a leader teaches by his/her own example and corporates must correct themselves to set an example. The real leader is about someone who serves and not controls.

"Employees when given more salary may derive some happiness but when given love, respect and importance, such employees will perform the most and will be there in the company forever."

Dr N.D. Desai of Apar Industries also shared his views on working in the business world. Dr Desai is a follower of Krishna. Flying in from Singapore, especially to participate in the seminar was CEO Sai Sudhakar of APAR Technologies, Singapo

Share